Participants Testimonials

The workshop has been instrumental in understanding what I have been doing right and where I have been doing wrong. Many a time, it transcended beyond just case teaching and made us reflect on teaching in general. The interactive approach to learning the technique was very effective.

*RITU YADAV, Assistant Professor
Indian Institute of Management Rohtak*

The Ivey Virtual Case Workshop provides an intensive training to educators on the effective ways of teaching and writing cases. It also provides a valuable chance for educators from various universities in various universities in the Asia Pacific to interact and exchange their experience. Most importantly, the trainer of the workshop is knowledgeable, professional and well prepared.

*ROSETTE LEUNG, Lecture
The Chinese University of Hong Kong*

I took this course as a refresher course after my 35 years of experience of case method teaching, It is asked by my school administrator like a retraining of the aged driver. Still I learned a lot and appreciate the opportunities. It would change my teaching style.

*TOMOFUMI ANEGAWA, Professor
Nagoya University of Commerce and Business*

Overall, I really enjoy this training because can give more knowledge how to conduct case teaching in the classroom, especially during pandemic when held session online by using video conference tools.

*MARISA KARSEN, Subject Content Coordinator
Binus University, Indonesia*
